

facilities

Museum galleries

Evening mood lighting
PA system and microphone
Elevated platform area for speeches
Projection onto Connections

Cubic Theatre

General:

Wireless network publicly accessible within the Cubic Theatre 121 seats. 44 are removable for a larger stage area and additional wheelchair access
Removable stage at front
Rear-lit screen with a DMX-controlled colour wash capable of displaying 16,500 colours
Evacuation-grade lifts for disabled access

Projection:

Front projection
High-quality 3-chip Digital Light Processing (DLP) projector, which provides a brighter, crisper image
Minimum 3.6–4.8 metre wide image projection, depending on aspect ratio
Facilities for speaker controlled presentations from lectern or technician controlled presentations from projection room

London Transport Museum
If you need further information please contact us using the details below.

London Transport Museum
39 Wellington Street
London
WC2E 7BB

Tel 020 7565 7298
www.ltmuseum.co.uk

facilities

Cubic Theatre cont...

Lectern:

Touch-screen control panel that controls lights and A/V inputs and outputs
LCD monitor, keyboard, and mouse
PC optimised for presentations and video
Space and connections for up to three laptops at a time

Sound:

Nine-speaker PA system with Dolby 5.1 cinema show sound and voice reinforcement system
SoundWeb network, which allows audio from the Cubic Theatre to be played elsewhere in the Museum

Lighting:

Lighting setup designed for lectures and presentations
Individually-controlled house lighting
Six DMX-directed halogen spot lights for the stage area, each of which can be adjusted to light speakers, BSL signers, or a panel presentation

Video:

Four channel digital matrix switcher which feeds up to four video inputs into a single projection
Two high-quality remote-controlled cameras which can be used to enlarge images of speakers (to aid lip reading) or signers
Blu-ray disc player
DVD player/recorder
Freeview tuner
Digital video (DV) recorder/player
Digital Betacam (DigiBeta) player
Two slide projectors

London Transport Museum
If you need further information please contact us using the details below.

London Transport Museum
39 Wellington Street
London
WC2E 7BB

Tel 020 7565 7298
www.ltmuseum.co.uk