

Technology and changing travel behaviours
Thought Leadership programme 2009

Timings: 8.00 – 9.45 Wednesday 6 May 2009

Venue: Cubic Foyer, London Transport Museum, Covent Garden Piazza
WC2E 7BB

Participating in the debate:

Guest Chair

Steve Norris

Park Place Communications

Leader

Cornelius Medvei, Senior Partner

Eversheds

Guest speaker

Professor Mike McDonald

University of Southampton

Host

Sam Mullins, Director

London Transport Museum

Corporate Members and Sponsors

Anne Harris, Partner

Eversheds

Robbie Owen, Partner & Head of Major Projects

Bircham Dyson Bell

Stephen Shewmaker, President Worldwide

Cubic Transportation Systems

Antony Lain, Head of Transportation

EDS, an HP company

Martin Dean, Managing Director –
Bus Development

Go-Ahead Group

David Threlfall, Principal Project Manager

Hyder Consulting

Andrew Fraser, Marketing Manager

Parsons Brinckerhoff

Yogesh Patel, Contract Director

Ringway Jacobs

Special Guests

Duncan Wilkinson, Director

Ove Arup & Partners

Lesley Gavin, Futurologist

BT

Peter Ecsery-Merrens,

Cisco

Director, Internet Business Solutions

Philip Ross, Chief Executive Officer

Cordless Consulting

Professor Brian Collins, Chief Scientific Advisor

Department for Transport

Paul Robb, Managed Business Process Services,
Public Sector, MBPS Executive Lead

IBM

Professor Glenn Lyons, Director, Centre for Transport & Society, University of the West of England, Futures Board

London Transport Museum Board

Shashi Verma, Director of Fares & Ticketing

Transport for London

Writer

Dr Mark Beecroft

University of Southampton

Also attending:

Claire Williamson, Assistant Director, Marketing and Development, London Transport Museum