

london transport museum

Sound bites: Chinese voices

From childhood memories of train trips, through to love stories, politics, sounds and smells, let people from China's diaspora communities tell you their stories about Museum objects. Download the mp3 to your iPod or mobile phone to listen to the audio trail during your visit to the Museum.

Sound bites: Chinese voices

- A Sedan chair
Discover from Ms Wang how the sedan chair played an important role in Chinese wedding ceremonies and hear how Ms Yam's grandfather travelled to school.
- B Horse tram
Listen to Veronica's childhood memory of trams in Hong Kong.
- C Met 23 steam train
Find out about what memories the smell of coal evokes for Hsien-Lin.
- D Met 400 train carriage
Learn about ladies' metro carriages in Taiwan from Jessica.
- E Padded cell Tube carriage
Hear Tina's story about a trip from Taiwan to Beijing.
- F Beck Tube map
Discover how today's Tube map gives Ms Wang greater freedom.
- G 38 Stock Tube train
Listen to Sue's tale from the 1980s of getting lost on the Underground.
- H Wagstaff bicycle
Find out all about cycling in China from Mr Zhang.
- I Routemaster bus
Hear Su talk about the most beautiful conductresses in Taipei.
- J Staff restaurant sign
Discover from Jessica the tasty Ben-dong lunchbox in Taiwan.
- K Leyland motor coach
Listen to Su's parents' love story that began on a bus.

All the stories were recorded for the Sound bites: Chinese voices project at London Transport Museum in partnership with London Huayu Chinese Community Radio.

Thank you to all the people that took part and contributed to the success of the project. Chinese voices is one of London Transport Museum's New routes projects, a programme of community exhibitions and partnerships.

Special thanks to:

Chi-Hung Zhang	Ying Yam
Hsien-Lin Ro	Veronica Needa
Huei-Wan Wang	Wang Qing Yun
Peter Vautier	Xiaoyan Guan
Su Ju-Yu	Ying-Lin Chen
Sue Yam	Zhang Ran